Issue #7: The City Does Not Take Seriously The Problem Of Illegal Exclusion At Lunada Bay.

174. For about a decade, the City has had two written ordinances related to its localism problem.	174. City MPA ISO MSJ 14:5-18.
175. The first ordinance to address the localism problem makes it illegal to block access to the beach, and the second makes it illegal to dangerously operate a surfboard (surf-riding or "dropping in") ordinance. But the blocking access to the beach ordinance has never been used and the surf-riding ordinance was used for the first time a few months ago (Spring 2017) – and only after a CPR volunteer insisted on follow up.	175.
